

Hospital Medical Report

Admission Date: 13 May 1788

Patient's name: Martha Eaton (convict)	Age: 25	Ship arrived on: Lady Penrhyn - First Fleet	Place of birth: England
---	--------------------------	--	--

Symptoms:

Swollen and bleeding gums, feels tired and weak, aching legs and arms, abdominal pain, red spots on her skin and has lost some teeth.

Patient's appearance:

Draw this patient in hospital: (Remember there were very few beds or blankets and NO electricity.)

Diagnosis: (What illness do you think this patient is suffering from?)

Reasons for illness: (How do you think she got this illness? What has she been eating or not eating?)

Medical treatment: (What treatment do you suggest for this illness? Will you use Aboriginal medicine? Describe or draw the treatment.)

Prognosis: (Write your opinion about the future health of this patient. Will she survive? If she does, will she have any long-term effects?)

Signature: _____

John White, Surgeon
Hospital at Sydney Cove, New South Wales

Hospital Medical Report

Admission Date: 29 July 1790

Patient's name: John Lockley (convict)	Age: 22	Ship arrived on: Alexander - First Fleet	Place of birth: England
---	--------------------------	---	--

Symptoms:

High temperature (fever), rapid breathing, headache, muscle aches, rash, chills and shivering.

Patient's appearance:

Draw this patient in hospital: (Remember there were very few beds or blankets and NO electricity.)

Diagnosis: (What illness do you think he is suffering from? Notice from the admission date of July 1790, this illness may have come out on the Second Fleet and spread to First Fleet convicts.)

Reasons for illness: (How do you think he got this illness? What conditions is he living in? What has he been eating or drinking?)

Medical treatment: (What treatment do you suggest for this illness? Will you use Aboriginal medicine? Describe or draw the treatment.)

Prognosis: (Write your opinion about his future health. Will he survive? If he does, will he have any long-term effects?)

Signature: _____

John White, Surgeon
Hospital at Sydney Cove, New South Wales

Hospital Medical Report

Admission Date: 5 March 1788

Patient's name: William Haynes (convict)	Age: 32	Ship arrived on: Friendship - First Fleet	Place of birth: England
---	--------------------------	--	--

Symptoms:
Vomiting, diarrhoea (with blood in it), stomach cramps, high temperature and he feels dehydrated.

Patient's appearance:

Draw this patient in hospital: (Remember there very few beds or blankets and NO electricity.)

Diagnosis: (What illness do you think he is suffering from?)

Reasons for illness: (How do you think he got this illness? What conditions is he living in? What has he been eating or drinking?)

Medical treatment: (What treatment do you suggest for this illness? Will you use Aboriginal medicine? Describe or draw the treatment.)

Prognosis: (Write your opinion about his future health. Will he survive? If he does, will he have any long-term effects?)

Signature: _____

John White, Surgeon
Hospital at Sydney Cove, New South Wales